Golf Matches This Month On Dixville Notch Links

Special Dispatch to The New York Herald.
DIXVILLE NOTCH, N. H., Sept. 2.—The old time supposition that with the passing of Labor Day all vacation activities were at an end is with each succeeding year proving a greater fallacy. Especially is this true at Dixville Notch, where early fall recreations have their inception immediately following what was originally supposed to be the closing date for warm weather activities.

The Dixville Notch links have been increased by many new players over the balsams course. Golf will be at its height in September and many who spend the winter golfing at Bretton Woods are here. Among them are P. B. O'Brien, E. D. Hayes and Fred Wardell, members of the Detroit Golf Club, who will compete in the September golf tournament.

Dr. Sinclair Tousey of Brooklyn is another enthusiastic golfer at the Balsams, and with Mrs. Tousey and his sons, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hurlbut, will motor up daily from the Mountain View House at Whitefield for golf and lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wardell of Detroit have offered a purse for the winner of the annual golf match the last of September. The caddie's minstrel show was held during the week.

The gayeties of the last week have included a bridge tournament, a tennis tournament, a character dance and a children's tennis tournament. Paul Lannin and Henry B. Clarke of Garden City won the tennis tournament. Miss Edwina Cruikshank of Garden City and Mr. C. Lee of Ridgewood, N. J., carried off the two cups presented by Mr. W. S. Stevenson of New York in the mixed doubles.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Porter of Great Neck, L. I., have arrived at the Balsams for several weeks. Mr. Porter is president of the White Mountains and is here until late September.

Mrs. Whitney Conant of Garden City is here with Mr. and Mrs. Freeman C. Dool of Lexington, Mass.
